

Become a professional Life Coach to Children and Teenagers

Are you passionate about empowering young minds and making a positive impact? Now you have the opportunity to learn how to transform their lives.

Led by experienced practitioners, Amy Moser and Javier Orti, this comprehensive four-month online course will equip you with the knowledge, skills, and a practical tools to effectively guide and support young people on their personal journeys.

Dive into 11 participative online classes covering topics such as understanding young people's needs, building rapport, effective communication strategies, collaboration with parents and teachers, and much more. The course is highly experiential, combining theory with hands-on practice sessions, fostering a dynamic, fun and interactive learning environment.

Is this course for you? This course is suitable for therapists seeking to amplify their impact with young people, teachers looking for an expanded toolbox, youth workers eager for new strategies, and parents yearning to strengthen their bond. Also, if you're on the lookout for an exciting new career, this course offers the perfect fit.

Learn through experience! Engage in reflective journaling, collaborate with classmates for practice sessions, and explore a variety of enriching materials like books, movies, and podcasts to enhance your understanding and self-reflection.

The course is undergoing accreditation for Continuing Professional Development (CPD), with certification from a UK Higher Education Institution in progress.
